LONG TERMS FACE HOAXERS IN KIDNAPING

Westbury, N. Y. (AP)—A longshoreman and a railroad clerk face up to 25 years in prison if convicted of tormenting Mrs. Beatrice Weinberger with a false claim they held her kidnapped baby.

The two young men, both unemployed, were to be arraigned today in Ridgewood Felony Court, Queens. They are charged with attempting to extort $5,000 from the heartbroken mother and giving false information about a kidnapping.

Meanwhile, there was no trace of 5-week-old Peter Weinberger or any solid evidence he is still alive. The blue-eyed baby was snatched from his carriage in the patio of the Weinberger home here last Wednesday.

Last night police sent out a 13-state alarm asking that doctors, hospitals, nurseries and adoption agencies be alerted to look out for the baby. The alarm described his feeding formula, which included five drops of Doxey, a vitamin B12 compound.

Inspector Stuyvesant Pinnell of the Nassau County police said again today that a church or synagogue would be the best medium to deal through from the kidnapping. (Turn to Page Eight)

Says House Will Turn Down Plea For Foreign Aid

BULLETIN
Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower today tabbed 15 legislative proposals—headed by foreign-aid funds and school construction—as matters he hopes Congress will act on before adjournment. Eisenhower pushed his requests by personal telephone calls to Democratic leaders here after talking them over with Republican Senate and House leaders at a meeting in Gettysburg, Pa. Senate Democratic Leader Johnson of Texas disclosed the President had telephoned him and House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) about the impending adjournment of Congress and "certain legislative matters."

Washington (AP)—The sponsor of a heavily cut foreign aid money bill said today he does not expect the House to increase its amount despite an appeal from President Eisenhower for a "substantial" restoration of funds.

Rep. Passman (D-Ala.) referred to scheduled House action tomorrow on the $3,600,000 foreign aid measure approved by the House Appropriations Committee. The bill is some $1,400,000 below Eisenhower's request.

House Republican Leader Martin (Mass.) handed to the Senate yesterday responsibility for any move to add funds to the bill. He announced at the start of debate that the House GOP leadership would make no concerted floor effort to restore money although, he said, "we believe the President is right" in protesting the cut.

Eisenhower mentioned no specific amount in a statement issued in Gettysburg, Pa., where he is convalescing from an intestinal operation.

Bradford Winner Coming for Derby

The Jaycees in charge have received word that Gary Kraus, winner of the 1955 Bradford Soap Box Derby, above, left holding plaque with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Kraus, to his right, who reside at St. Marys, will be guests of the committee at the Warren Soap Box Derby, jointly sponsored by the Times-Mirror, Dan's Chevrolet and the Junior Chamber of Commerce, to be held July 21, at Central avenue. John Smith, who will be in charge of the actual running of the race, reminds all members of the Site, Ramp and Event Committee to be present at an important meeting of this group to be held this evening in the Y.M.C.A. at 8:00 p. m. Inspection of the Soap Box Derby racers will begin this evening at 6:30 at Beatty Junior High School. All boys who have been notified to appear for inspection this evening are reminded to bring the driver licenses which had been issued at the time of their registration at Dan's Chevrolet. Inspections will also be made tomorrow and Thursday evenings.

Warren Jaycees Collect Over $650 for Effort in Sponsoring Greatest Show on Earth Here

An evening crowd of some 4,500 spectators swelled the overall Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey circus attendance yesterday to approximately 8,000, chalking up another successful, gala event to the increasing list of community triumphs of Warren's lively Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Abe Schwartz, Jaycee in charge of ticket sales, reported the Junior Chamber received $651 for its many efforts. The sum was five percent of a $13,022 gate, after taxes, collected up until 4 p. m.

Hundreds of persons, including almost an equal number of adults and children, spent the early morning and late evening hours watching the great procession mount and dismount the sections of train, carrying the show.

Both old and young were enthralled at the spectacle of elephants coming from their traveling menagerie cars and lumbering down Fourth Avenue to the airport yesterday morning before the show.

Collision West of Union City Takes The Lives of Three

Union City (AP)—Two persons were killed and two others were injured yesterday in a head-on auto collision on Route 6 three miles west of Union City.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jurma, 36, of Lavonia, Mich., and Guy A. Duray, 45, of RD 3, Union City, were killed.

Robert Jurma, 37, the dead woman's husband, and Donald Nichols, 34, of Union City, were taken to St. Memorial Hospital where they were reported in fair condition.

Mr. Jurma suffered a fractured right knee and a lacerated right arm. Both of the injured men were in fair condition at St. Memorial Hospital, Union City, last night.

Corry State Police said Mr. Duray was driving at too high a rate of speed and failed to negotiate a curve properly. His car veered into the path of the other car.

29,000 on Hand for All-Star Contest in Washington Today

By JOE REICHLER

Washington (AP)—Bob Friend of Pittsburgh and Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox squared off as the starting pitchers in today's 23rd All-Star Baseball Game at Washington before a sellout crowd of about 29,000 fans.

Manager Casey Stengel of the American League team had no trouble deciding on Pierce as his starter but Walter Alton, the National's skipper, did not settle on Friend until he was convinced the Pirate ace was fully recovered from a mild throat ailment that had sent him to bed Sunday.

Stengel, explaining the choice of Pierce, over his own Yankee Whitey Ford, said: "Pierce has the best record in the league. I know he pitched Sunday but he went only five innings and that shouldn't bother him at all."

Stengel, a man of many innovations, said he may throw three southpaws against the power-laden National Leaguers. His plan was to follow Pierce with Ford and Herb Score, the Cleveland fireballer.

Alston said he wasn't sure who would follow Friend to the mound. He thought he would use a left-hander for the middle three innings but added:

"It all depends on the moves Casey makes. That is, what players he has in the game as it goes along."

Friend's work was cut out for him since six of the Americans' starters bat left-handed, including the switch-hitting Mickey Mantle.

Radio Announcer's Wife Victim of Gunshot Wound

Pittsburgh (AP)—A radio announcer's wife was found dead of a gunshot wound today in their apartment above a private garage in the Edgewood section.

The victim was Mrs. Nancy Dickson, 26, wife of Wallace (Wally) Dickson, about 30, a free lance commercial announcer and part-time disc jockey who is heard over Pittsburgh Radio Stations WJAS and WWSW.

Dickson and Police Chief Fred Laughlin of Edgewood said Mrs. Dickson apparently shot herself, but Dickson said he knew of no reason why she should do so.

He said he left home yesterday afternoon and returned about 2:30 a. m. He said he found his wife in pajamas on the floor. Police said she had been shot in the center of the forehead with a .22 caliber rifle which was found beneath her body. They said apparently only one shot had been fired from the rifle.

NEGOTIATORS WAIT DECISION BY MEDIATORS

BULLETIN
Washington (AP)—Federal mediators today fixed Thursday as the "probable" day to begin joint meetings in Pittsburgh of industry and union representatives in an effort to end the steel strike. Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal mediation and Conciliation Service, announced at the same time that mediators will hold preliminary meetings with both sides today and tomorrow. Finnegan said he would meet at 5 p. m. here today with David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, and Arthur G. Goldberg, union counsel. There will be a preliminary session tomorrow, probably in Finnegan's office here about noon, with an industrial group headed by John A. Stephens, vice president of U. S. Steel.

Pittsburgh (AP)—Steel negotiators awaited a government decision today on the time and place for the new negotiations in the 10-day-old nationwide steel strike. Officials of the Federal Mediation Service expect to call industry and United Steelworkers leaders together, probably within a day or two.

During the long weeks of contract debate, the federal government remained entirely out of the picture. But after exploratory talks in Pittsburgh, it decided to take the initiative.

Negotiations collapsed July 1, six hours before the strike that has idled 650,000 steelworkers and cut the nation's steelmaking production by 90 per cent.

Neither side has made any move toward resuming contract talks, indicating they have not retreated from their position.

In another development, the government again has moved to conserve steel products for essential defense work.

The Commerce Department announced that the space the 35 or more steel mills not affected by the strike must devote to defense.

Mass Funeral Held At Flagstaff For Plane Crash Victims

Flagstaff, Ariz. (AP)—Two men of God saw the Grand Canyon air disaster as a possible beacon to progress in the air at a mass funeral and burial attended by friends and relatives of the crash victims yesterday.

Sixty-seven coffins were lowered into the ground on a pine-covered knoll of the Flagstaff Cemetery. They symbolized the bodies of the 70 victims aboard the Trans World Airlines plane that presumably collided with a United Airlines DC7 on June 30, killing all 128 aboard. Remains of three victims were sent home for burial.

Elder Delbert L. Stapley of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints in Salt Lake City said God "is not responsible for these tragedies, but imperfect man is victimized by his own inventions."

Such disasters serve a purpose of stressing the need for advances in technology, the Mormon elder said, and "the sacrifice of life therefore is not always in vain."

Most of the 1,500 at the funeral stood and stared without display of emotion. Few of the mourners wept.

United Air Lines said it would have an announcement on its funeral plans today.

Council Takes Final Action On Many Projects Including Traffic, Paving and Parking

Positive action was taken last night on several Warren Borough Council traffic, paving and parking projects which have been in the planning stage for some time.

The Public Works Committee offered two resolutions calling for bids for resurfacing Third Avenue from the west side of Market Street to the north line of Pennsylvania Avenue and to resurface Fifth Avenue from the East end of Fifth Avenue Bridge to west side of Conewago Avenue. Both passed unanimously.

Councilman Glen J. Patchen proposed that the traffic light for the intersection south of Hickory Street Bridge be purchased for approximately $900. The Public Safety Committee recommendation was approved. This light should be ready for installation some time in late August. It will have three faces, one for bridge traffic, one for St. Clair Street and the other facing east-bound Crescent Park traffic. Another ordinance must be passed before the PSC's plan of making Crescent Park one-way west of the bridge to the hospital can take effect.

The borough secretary was also granted permission to advertise for bids to seal-coat Linwood, Cedar, North Parker, Canton, Carver, Verbeck, Brook and Lower Market; and also to execute an application for Pennsylvania Emergency Flood relief funds.

The sub-lease agreement with the YMCA over use of their tennis courts on Liberty Street for seven and one-half months of the year was approved. Thirty-two cars can be accommodated and the lease will take effect when the meters have been installed and other arrangements completed, probably sometime early this fall.

Council voted to expend $100 from the Palmie Park Fund to inscribe seven names of deceased Korean War veterans on the shaft at Memorial Field.

Frank Wagner and Son of Sheffield bid of $750 to paint the exterior woodwork of the Municipal Building was accepted by council. Only other bid was from Wendelboe for $1,075.

Burgess William E. Rice questioned the Public Service Committee of Council whether they had set up a system of promotions within the police department. The Burgess said positions of first lieutenant and two sergeants were ready to be filled.

Borough solicitor S. Knox Harper reported to Council that under an amendment to state law, borough's were now allowed to tax 20 mills for general fund purposes. Previous high was 15 mills.

The Burgess presented to Council the plaque which had been presented to him the Fourth of July from Simcoe Mayor Harry Carter when the Ontario Boy Scout Troop marched in the Jaycee parade.

In the repaving program, it was reported concrete was poured on Walnut Street and that the paving on upper Water Street was three-fourths completed.

The following memorial tribute was passed in honor of Hazel Thurston who was killed in an automobile accident:

Resolution No. 608
WHEREAS: Tragedy has removed from our midst Miss Hazel Thurston whose untimely death occurred on May 4th, 1956, and WHEREAS: Hazel Thurston was a faithful and capable secretary to

Warren Man Elected To National Office in Elks

Chicago (AP)—Two Western Pennsylvania men have been elected to national office at the 92nd annual convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Ruel H. Smith, Warren, Pa., was elected grand esteemed lecturer knight, and Lee A. Donaldson, Elma, Pa., reelected grand secretary. The convention chose Fred L. Bohn, editor of the Zanesville, Ohio, signal, to be grand exalted ruler. He defeated Cyril A. Kromser, Cleveland, in the first contested election for the office in 29 years.

AN APPRECIATION

The Jaycees wish to thank all the Warren and State Police officers who contributed so much to solving the traffic problems which enabled the circus operation to move easily. They also extended thanks to all borough officials whose combined efforts made the show possible on such short notice. Special appreciation was also noted for the co-operation of communication media.

Driver for Phila. Inquirer Beaten To Death Near Office

Philadelphia (AP)—A Philadelphia Inquirer truck driver was beaten to death today in the parking lot which adjoins the newspaper building on North Broad street.

The victim, Henry Turner, 54, of Woodlyn, died in Hahnemann Hospital within minutes after he was found.

There were no witnesses to the attack but police said Turner was apparently the victim of a pair of robbers. His wallet was missing and his broken glasses and other personal effects were strewn near his body.

Police theorized that Turner checked out of the Inquirer garage and had just unlocked his automobile door when the robbers attacked. He dropped a jacket and some newspapers, and raced for a nearby locker room.

Turner, who had an artificial leg was two thirds of the way across the lot when his assailants overtook him. He was beaten savagely and apparently kicked on the head and body after he fell. He suffered a skull fracture, internal injuries and a broken nose, examining physicians reported.

About five minutes after the attack, a second Inquirer driver, Michael Mature, found Turner unconscious. The trouser pocket, where he carried his wallet, was torn and the wallet was gone.

Passenger Killed By Flying Propellor Blade

Windsor, Ont. (AP)—A propeller tore loose from a four-engine Trans-Canada airliner yesterday and disintegrated while the plane was flying at 8,000 feet over Michigan. One blade ripped through the cabin, killing a woman passenger and injuring 10 other persons.

The turbo-prop Vickers Viscount which carried 30 passengers, was about 35 miles southwest of here when the accident occurred. The pilot made an emergency landing at Windsor Airport on two engines.

Trans-Canada officials said it was the first serious accident the line has had with the speedy British jet-prop airliner since it was put in service in North America 15 months ago.

The aircraft was en route from Chicago to Toronto.

NEW LAB FOR IOWA

Washington (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson today picked Iowa State College at Ames, a school he once attended, as the site for the government's new 18 million dollar animal disease laboratory. In a statement issued by the department, Benson said this location had been recommended by livestock industry advisory committee which survey a number of proposed sites.

ANNOUNCEMENT DISCLOSED AT DRAMATIC CONFERENCE HELD AT GETTYSBURG TODAY

Gettysburg (AP)—President Eisenhower is going to run for a second term.

Republican Senate Leader Knowland disclosed this at a dramatic news conference on the Gettysburg College campus today.

Press secretary James C. Hagerty stood by nodding. Knowland said the President told a meeting of Republican congressional leaders he feels in better shape than he did when he made his Feb. 29 announcement.

"We are looking forward to a very vigorous and active campaign under his leadership," Knowland said. "Are you telling us," a reporter asked, "that the President is going to keep his hat in the ring?"

"I'm telling you precisely that," Knowland replied.

He added that Eisenhower "left no doubt in anyone's mind" that he will run again despite his June 9 intestinal operation.

Eisenhower himself appeared before reporters and photographers before and after an hour strategy session with the Capitol Hill leaders.

He looked a little pale and obviously had lost weight. The rough-textured sport shirt he wore was loose around his neck. But his color was better and his step was firmer than when he left Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington a week ago last Saturday.

Knowland was asked whether Eisenhower had given thought to his decision to run again in the light of his recent illness, which followed by nine months his Denver heart attack.

"The fact remains he's in the race," Knowland replied.

The senator said he regarded Eisenhower's comments today as a "continuation" of his Feb. 29 announcement that he would accept renomination.

Eisenhower's second major illness had touched off a new worldwide outbreak of political speculation on whether the President would stay in the race for a second term. The first big round of speculation—generated when Eisenhower suffered his heart attack in Denver Sept. 24, 1955—had subsided only three months earlier when the President announced he would seek another term.

During the three weeks the President spent in Walter Reed recuperating from his major abdominal operation he dropped not a single public hint as to what his political course would be as (Turn to Page Eight)

Owner of Boat in Fatal Collision Under Bond

Pittsburgh (AP)—Martin Jerina, 45, North Braddock was held in $10,000 bond today after he identified himself as the operator of a boat involved in a fatal collision Sunday with another small craft in the Allegheny River.

Jerina surrendered last night but he denied that the accident near Verona that claimed the life of Mrs. Harriett Brockway, 24, of Penn Twp. was a "hit and run" case.

Edward Kutch, also of North Braddock, who was with Jerina at the time of the collision, also was held on $10,000 bond for the coroner.

Jerina's craft collided with one operated by Mrs. Harriett Brockway in the river near Verona. Mrs. Brockway was thrown into the river and drowned. Two other occupants of the Brockway craft were rescued.

Tennessee Governor Chosen To Keynote Democrat Convention

Chicago (AP)—Gov. Frank G. Clement of Tennessee, regarded as friendly to Adlai E. Stevenson, was selected yesterday to keynote the Democratic National Convention.

The young governor was named by the party's Convention Arrangements Committee after a three-hour meeting.

Clement, a fiery orator and considered a possible vice presidential candidate, did not receive a unanimous vote of the committee, National Chairman Paul M. Butler said.

Butler said the committee's 13 members gave a "full discussion" of each of 17 or 18 possible selections. Clement was picked, he said "because of his familiarity with the issues and his capacity to discuss them fluently and capably, and the impression he has made

Aid Is Rushed To Island Hit By Earthquake

Athens, Greece (AP)—Greek sailors combed the rubble ruins of Thira Island today, seeking 20 persons reported missing since death-dealing earthquakes and tidal waves rocked the Aegean Islands south of Greece.

Prime Minister Constantine Karamanlis' office announced the casualty total from yesterday's upheaval also included 42 killed and 51 injured. All were on Thira—most in the town of Santorini—except five injured on the neighboring island of Amorgos.

An earlier report that 10 died on Ios appeared incorrect.

Thousands of homeless spent the night in the fields. Minor earth shocks continued through the night and into the morning. The Athens observatory said 257 tremors of varying intensity had been recorded.

The first eyewitness reports from Greek reporters on Thira, southernmost island of the Cyclades group and the home of some 10,000 persons, said the first quake lasted 45 seconds and struck just after sunrise.

Most of the casualties were women and children.

Seasoned by a series of quakes in recent years, the Greek government sped aid to the stricken areas.

King Paul and Queen Frederika interrupted a holiday on the island of Corfu to hasten to Thira by destroyer.

U. S. Ambassador Cavendish Cannon met with Karamanlis to discuss possible American assistance for the quake victims.

Refinancing of Turnpike Considered Impractical

Harrisburg (AP)—The chairman of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission today termed proposals to refinance the superhighway system as impractical. "I think refinancing the turnpikes would be impractical from the standpoint of what it would cost," said Chairman G. Franklin McSorley shortly before a legislative investigating committee went into executive session to draft recommendations resulting from its study.

The five-man Senate committee held two hearings last month to determine the validity of a proposed 41 per cent complete trip auto increase and 20 per cent full trip truck toll decrease proposed in May by the commission.

Jamboree in 1957

Appointment of three sub-chairmen for the 1957 Jamboree has been announced by Robert Anstadt, chairman, according to an announcement of the Chief Cornplanter Boy Scout Office Joe Wick, of North Warren, will serve as promotion chairman, Judge Alexander C. Fick Jr. as personnel chairman, and Joe DeFrees as equipment chairman.

Each of these men will shortly announce additions to his committee.

The Jamboree committee has scheduled a meeting with commissioners and unit chairmen to be held at Camp Olmsted on Wednesday, July 25. At this time, all of the details of the 1957 Jamboree will be released.

The council has been advised that only 29 reservations are available at this time, with a possibility of more later if some councils cannot fill their quota. This is six less than the council requested.

In addition the council will be allowed to send one Scout to the Jubilee in England in August of 1957. Congress has passed a bill authorizing transportation to England and on a navy vessel for the trip and loaning tenting and equipment.

Police Chiefs Are Making Plans For Annual Convention

"Highway Speedicide" with its terrible record of accidents and death has supplanted juvenile delinquency as the number one problem on Pennsylvania's law enforcement list, according to representatives of the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association who are preparing for their 43rd Annual Convention at Pittsburgh on July 23rd, 24th and 25th, 1956.

Samuel Siegle, Executive Director of the Association, advised that juvenile delinquency still remains a "police headache" but does not measure up to the seriousness of the highway traffic situation "which has reached a new all-time high in police frustration and lack of public understanding". Siegle continued, "The irresponsibility of adult automobile driving, particularly with the terrible holiday death and accident toll, has become a personal challenge to law enforcement. The police have come to dread each approaching holiday, and it seems almost ridiculous that police must fight to set up preventative programs to stop people from killing and injuring themselves."

Chief Edward C. Gibson of Meadville President of the Pennsylvania Chiefs of Police Association, concurred with Siegle in expressing the police executives' views and added, "Police feel that every reckless motorist is a potential killer, and we cannot understand the indifference of the American public who are willing to face each holiday's potential danger without either making a significant protest or joining with police in demanding that there be a genuine nationwide program of highway safety with every safe driving law enforced to the letter. Potential traffic killers must be kept from the highways, and police can only do this if they are backed by the courts and the people.

At the convention a report will be made to the assembly stressing the over-all Pennsylvania "speedicide" picture. Numerous proposals will be placed before the Chiefs demanding correction of an unfortunate condition. Another report which will be of special interest to the public is the annual Juvenile Delinquency statement. Last year the Chiefs blamed "Cafeteria Criminals," that is parents who condone various crimes and protest against others as being largely responsible for the juvenile situation. They were accused by the Chiefs of "shirking their God-given responsibility in order to appease their own delinquent cravings."

President of Sylvania Says Business Outlook "Excellent" For Remainder of the Year

Buffalo, N. Y.—The business outlook for industry as a whole is "excellent" for the remainder of the year, particularly in the electronics industry, whose volume will set a new record of over $11.5 billion this year, according to Don G. Mitchell, Chairman and President of Sylvania Electric Products Inc.

Addressing the annual convention of Sylvania's Radio and Television Division distributors, at which the company's 1957 line of television, radio and high-fidelity sets was introduced, Mr. Mitchell also estimated that the television set business will surpass last year's record and reach a new high of 7,500,000 sets sold to the public. The total was 7,400,000 last year.

Although the TV set business continues to be intensely competitive, "witness the companies that have left the field," Sylvania not only intends to stay in the business but to "increase its volume substantially," the company's chief executive declared.

Commenting on the general business outlook, Mr. Mitchell said: "The products are being produced or are available, and the public is ready and able to buy them." He cited as symptoms of a "basically strong economy" the substantial backlog of orders in many industries and the record rate of consumer spending.

The electronics industry is well on its way to doubling its volume in less than 10 years, the Sylvania official stated. Volume will be passing $15 billion in four or five years and will reach $22 billion by 1965 or even sooner, he predicted, emphasizing that "these estimates will probably prove to be too conservative, because they are based on very realistic projections of existing trends."

About 7,500,000 black-and-white TV sets and 275,000 color sets will be produced by the entire industry this year, with 7,300,000 and 200,000 respectively being sold to the public, Mr. Mitchell predicted. In 1957, black-and-white production will decrease to about 6,700,000 units and color will climb to more than 900,000 with sales to the public totalling 6,700,000 and 750,000 respectively, he estimated.

Marion E. Pettigrew, Sylvania Vice President - Operations in charge of the Radio and Television Division, told the convention that the market for radio and television sets "is ripe for the widest, deepest selling effort ever. Today we are confronted with the toughest of competition and we have every intention of being around when the smoke has cleared."

Mr. Pettigrew said Sylvania has the research and engineering facilities and the "electronic know-how" to take a progressive and aggressive approach to this "healthy but highly competitive television market."

"In the race to achieve greater efficiency and economy of production, automation will play a more and more significant role in our industry," Pettigrew said. "Sylvania has pioneered in automatic and semi-automatic manufacturing and has developed over the years new types of equipment and methods."

"You have seen the latest progress of automation in our radio line and in sub-assemblies for our TV chassis," he told distributors. "Our program has been consistently in the direction of complete automation. Each new radio design has been built around the automation concept. We are gradually converting our radio line as completely to automation as we possibly can and should close the gap within the next year."

Pettigrew said that because of Sylvania's experience in radio set automation, the company has increased the use of automatic equipment in television assembly lines.

YOUR FOREST RANGER L. E. Stots

The month of July brings the first real onrush of vacationists to the National Forests and National Parks of America, and although more and more people are becoming dependent upon these vast public playgrounds for recreation and inspiration, there is still some confusion concerning the basic differences between a National Forest and a National Park.

Perhaps the best way to show the fundamental differences between a National Forest and a National Park is to compare the Grand Canyon National Park with the Kaibab National Forest, since this famous National Park separates the two parts of the Kaibab National Forest by a gash in the earth a mile deep and eleven miles wide known as the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. As one of the world's greatest natural wonders. It fully typifies the aims of the National Park Service of the Department of the Interior which is charged with administering it in such a manner as will leave it unimpaired for the enjoyment of future generations. As a rule, only lands containing outstanding scenic, geologic or other natural wonders are included in National Park boundaries. Certainly, Grand Canyon National Park fits into all of those categories.

Immediately upon leaving the Grand Canyon National Park you step onto the Kaibab National Forest, which is administered by the Forest Service of the Department of Agriculture for the protection, development and use of timber, water, range, recreation and wildlife.

yon National Park where hunting is prohibited. Even the large predators, such as the mountain lions, are safe from the pursuing hunter when they cross into the National Park.

Cattle, sheep and horses are grazed under permit on the Kaibab National Forest, and mature timber is marked for cutting. Neither of these practices are permitted in the National Park, and for good reason.

However, the welcome mat is laid out for recreationists on both sides of the boundary line between the Grand Canyon National Park and the Kaibab National Forest. In both park and Forest they may enjoy camping, picnicking, hiking and motoring while enjoying scenery unimpaired by billboards, hot dog stands and other forms of roadside commercialism. In the field of outdoor recreation, both the National Forests and the National Parks have much in common.

National Parks and National Forests came into being in entirely different ways. National Parks were established, individually, only by act of Congress. National Forests were established by proclamation of the President, although in a few States, only by act of Congress. The earliest National Forests were established by reservation of lands in the public domain. Under authorization of Congress, lands may also be acquired for National Forest purposes by purchase, donation or exchange.

Rather than conflicting with one another the National Parks and National Forests complement one another. It is fitting that areas containing superlative examples of the scenic and majestic in nature should be set aside permanently as National Parks where they can become vast outdoor museums for the enjoyment and inspiration of American citizens.

It is equally fitting that other public lands, less scenic, should be dedicated to multiple use management.

system so that a variety of products and services will be made available to the public for generations to come.

Whether you visit a National Park or a National Forest this summer, you will see beauty and find refreshment both in body and in spirit, for since man does not live by bread alone even the most callous cannot come into intimate contact with nature without far reaching effects.

TURNPIKES PAVED THE WAY

As the nation's motorists begin paying an extra penny of federal tax on their gasoline to help foot the bill for the vast new highway program, it should not be forgotten what a remarkable contribution the turnpikes have made to modern motor travel in America.

On Aug. 15 at least 95 miles of the 158-mile Indiana turnpike will be opened to the public. Thereby, all but about 60 miles of a fabulous New York to Chicago turnpike network will have been put into operation.

This fantastic system, free of stoplights, intersections, side roads and all the other usual highway encumbrances, must of course be paid for by tolls forked up out of the motorists' pocket.

But until now they have constituted an almost necessary expense, for these roads have been virtually the only truly modern highways in the nation. With their great sweep, their great engineering advances, they show bold use of the imagination in tackling one of our toughest problems.

Indeed, by any fair measure they are the beacon for the new 41,000-mile national superhighway program just signed into law. They have shown the unimaginative and the plodding exactly what a highway network ought to be like in an age when 60 million vehicles cram the traffic arteries.

CIRCUS DAY

The presence here Monday of "The Greatest Show On Earth Today" proved another red-letter day, not only for the people of Warren and the surrounding areas, but to the Local Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Despite a terrific rain storm early in the evening circus fans turned out in numbers that really surprised the management of the show, who reported that it was a remarkably good attendance considering the size of the town and the threatening weather.

The Jaycees are to be commended for another excellent community project, which, of course, included the supervision of parking facilities at the Airport which was unusually well organized.

In the distribution of orchids today the work of the borough police under the supervision of Chief M. Evan, along with the State Police, and the special officials hired for the occasion, including one officer from both Pleasant and Conewango townships, along with six mounted deputy sheriffs from Chautauqua county, should not be overlooked.

The fact that no serious accidents resulted and the huge flow of traffic was handled with a minimum of delay attests to the splendid manner in which this important phase of the eventful day had been organized.

Warren received nation-wide recognition when the circus appeared here four years ago when it was announced that the attendance was the largest of the season. This record was almost duplicated again here yesterday due to the fact that the show has encountered conditions that has cut down attendance in many of the larger cities. It was estimated a crowd of between 7,000 and 8,000 turned out for the evening show and at least half that number witnessed the afternoon performance.

Naturally, with the Celebration and the Circus all pasted up in the Scrap Books being kept by the present officers, the Jaycees will give more attention to the upcoming Soap Box Derby, next important project on the summer agenda, scheduled for Saturday, July 21st, on the Central Avenue Speedway.

It will be good news, not only to motorists residing on the South Side, but to everyone having occasion to use the Hickory street bridge, to learn that Council has approved the installation of a traffic light at the south approach of the structure. Too many fenders have been damaged at that busy spot during the past year. A light will facilitate the movement of traffic at that busy spot.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit, he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.—Psalms 36:3.

If anyone tells you that such a person speaks ill of you, do not make excuse about what is said of you, but answer: "He was ignorant of my other faults, else he would not have mentioned these alone"—Ecclesiastes.

And Away They All Go

and
THERE

On August 21, 1888, the Evening Mirror announced the coming of a circus to the town that year in this manner. "We are going to have a circus in Warren this summer after all. On August 27th the Miller and Freeman Railroad show will pitch tents here. It comes well recommended by the press, and is heralded in this manner: Miller & Freeman New United Monster Railroad Show. Positively the largest canvas ever erected, and requiring the greatest acreage for exhibition purposes." Coming by its own monster railway trains and offering more inducements for patronage than any other exhibition. The Finest Lady and Gentle Equestrians, The Most Artistic Aerial Performers, The Most Renowned Gymnasts, the Most Astonishing Athletes, the Best Scene Riders the Best Menagerie Riders, and the Best Bareback Riders! The Funniest Clowns! The Best Tumbler and the Most Skilled and Dextrous High and Long Distance Doubles Somersault Leapers in the Profession! First Class Menagerie With Living Specimens of all that is Rare and Curious among the Beasts and Birds of the World. Grand Street Parade at eleven o'clock! The Show will Exhibit at Warren Monday, August 27th Afternoon at one o'clock evening at seven! Excursion on all Railroads!"

Just in passing we noted this paragraph in the same issue on the art of drinking water properly. Note closely and heed well "Water should always be swallowed slowly. It is not the stomach which is dry, but the mouth and throat! If you toss off a drink of water, you throw it through your mouth into your stomach, without doing the former any good, while you injure the latter by loading it with what it does not require. Drink slowly, and keep the water in your mouth for a moment when you begin!" (Note—the article makes no mention of the proper way to guzzle other types of liquids.)

And here's another item that probably caused a flurry back in the good old days of bike riding. "Chief Engineer F. E. Windsor this morning tried his hand at record breaking by riding from Allegheny Springs to Warren on his wheel in fifty minutes!"

"Field work on a survey which will give America its first authentic information of national scope on the economic aspects of hunting and sport fishing has been completed. Data contained in the more than 9,000 questionnaires are now being analyzed, according to information which John L. Farley, Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service transmitted this spring to the conservation directors of the 48 States. The results of the survey will be submitted to the Fish and Wildlife Service this summer in time to permit preparation of a detailed report for presentation at the September meeting of the International Association of Game, Fish and Conservation Commissioners. Printed copies of the Service report will be available at that time. The survey was made by the Crossley, S-D Surveys, Inc. of New York. Interviewing started on January 7. Candidates 'IF'—Ike's Chances—
Ducky Shivers—Dewey for Senate

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The report that President Eisenhower tried to get Secy. of Treasury George M. Humphrey to run for the GOP presidential nomination before the President's own Feb. 29 announcement that he would accept renomination gets a "No comment" from the White House. It was first reported in Newsweek.

From the Treasury comes the comment that the secretary's relations with the President are too confidential to be discussed in public.

ORIGIN OF THE "Knowland for President IF" Committee has been traced to a couple of associates of Gerald L. K. Smith. A local weekly in the Los Angeles area which has been riding herd on Smith's activities broke the committee's cover, concealed by a Glendale, Calif., post office box blind address. Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) has disclaimed any connection with the organization, and repudiated its activity.

People in all parts of the country have in recent weeks been receiving a full-page poster announcing the program of the "Knowland for President IF" Committee.

It declares that the committee represents a serious political strategy on the party of traditionally minded American patriots. The backers are said to be realistic enough to know that President Eisenhower may not be "physically able to accept the nomination for President at San Francisco." Senator Knowland is presented as a faithful friend of General MacArthur and the man who fought against the censuring of Senator McCarthy.

A U.S. OFFICIAL at United Nations headquarters recently sample of 15,000 homes selected scientifically throughout the country with some located in each State, contacted hunters and fishermen in 5,200 homes. The survey was done largely as the result of a resolution adopted at the September 1954 meeting of the International Association of Game Fish and Conservation Commissioners. Wildlife conservationists generally have felt need for evaluation of the place of hunting and sport fishing in the national economy.

Spatterings While it was known to only a few of us it will doubtless interest many others to learn that Cy Williams, area Scout for the Detroit Tigers, was at the Asheville-Elks game at the State Hospital diamond last Saturday, and when he took off about the sixth inning he said he was going to be in Jamestown and from there on to Birmingham, N.Y. Was nice to have a chat with the Major League representative since our last contact was about three years ago. One of the representatives of the circus stated before leaving that the big top was about sold out of reserved seats for the evening performance.

afternoon was not quite so good, wonderful compliment to the Warren Jaycees. At 7:00 when the rain was coming down in pretty large quantities it didn't look so encouraging for the night performance, but after the precipitation let up and the clouds broke in the west the rush for the snow grounds started and at eight o'clock there was no doubt but that the huge tent would be pretty well filled. Policing authorities deserve another huge bouquet for the faultless manner in which the huge crowds were patrolled, and these include the borough department under Chief M. Evan, the State Police, all township police, aided and abetted by the "Chautauqua county mounties." Have a note from our old friend Charley N. MacWilliams, who foresook these parts and migrated to California "too" many years ago, enclosing a clipping from a Los Angeles paper with the "Strange as It May Seem" mentioning Kay Costley. Charley lives at 12121 Washington Boulevard, Culver City, 66, California, in case anyone is interested in dropping him a card.

Cadillac

His Last Switch in Motor Cars!

We have no way of knowing, of course, how many different makes of motor cars this gentleman has owned through the years.

But we're willing to bet that he has now made his last switch in motor cars!

For this time it's a Cadillac! And it is historically true that once a motorist makes the move to the "car of cars", he is usually a Cadillac owner for life.

What are the reasons for this great devotion and loyalty? Well, let us count them off.

First of all, there are the things which everyone recognizes in Cadillac. There is its great beauty... its matchless luxury... and the unquestioned respect which the car commands the world over.

Then there are those qualities with which anyone who has ever driven a Cadillac is familiar.

There is its marvelous comfort and ease of handling... its magnificent power and performance... and its wonderful balance and agility.

And, finally, there are those things which only Cadillac owners themselves can fully appreciate. There is the car's remarkable economy of operation and upkeep—its incredible longevity—and its marvelous resale value.

Incidentally, you will find that we have recently made two additions to this list of things you get when you make your decision for Cadillac.

We're talking about prompt delivery and a generous trade-in allowance!

Better come in while the circumstances are so favorable—and make your last switch in motor cars!

Value of Diversion Terraces Is Emphasized by Conservationist

Diversion terraces are doing a good Conservation Job, according to Ralph G. Eckert, work unit conservationist, of the Soil Conservation Service, in Warren County. With the extremely heavy and sudden rain storms we have been having this year, diversion terraces are proving their worth more and more.

Early this summer diversion terraces were started on Ed. Day's farm north of Youngsville. Even before they could be completed, because of the wet spell we had, they were doing a good job. "Ed" remarked that he would never have been able to plow the field at the time he did had the diversions not been there.

On another farm, up Akeley way, along the Norberg road, Walter Gage built two diversions. He was lucky to pick about the only three nice days, in a row, to work his diversions. They were completed as far as building was concerned but he has not been able to get them seeded yet. During the sudden heavy rain they had in that section, Saturday, a week ago, "Walt" was paid back for all his costs. He told me they were worth four or five times what they cost, in that one storm alone.

The area between the two diversions was not rilled or eroded even though it was plowed and planted in corn. Another area in corn above the diversion was full of rills from eroded top soil. The two areas definitely showed the contrast and benefit of diversion protection.

As I was leaving I told him I would probably bring some visitors up to see his diversion and talk to him if it was ok. He laughed and said, "As long as you do not take the diversion away, you can bring anybody you want."

To date, Warren County farmers have indicated that they want soil Conservation Service assistance to build over four miles of diversion terrace. This assistance is in form of location, stake out and supervision of building. It is obtained through cooperation with the Warren County Soil Conservation District, the Agriculture Conservation Program or the Farmers Home Administration.

REA ANNIVERSARY
The 20th anniversary of the erection of the first Northwestern Rural Electric Co-operative Assn., Inc., pole in the state will be marked by special ceremonies next month at the county fairgrounds. The first pole was erected in Woodcock Township, Crawford County, and a permanent marker will be dedicated at the fairgrounds. It will be relocated at the actual site on the A. D. Stainbrook farm, on the road between Fountain House and Blooming Valley. H. C. Latshaw, director of the state Farm Bureau Federation, will be the principal speaker at the ceremonies on Aug. 4.

HAMMERMILL BUYS LAND
A Franklin paper says a 750-acre property in President Township has been purchased for $12,000 by the Hammermill Paper Co. of Erie, according to information in a deed filed last week in Venango County court house. The property was purchased from Oliver Chas. Dean of Pleasantville. The oil, gas and mineral rights are reserved for Mrs. Dean along with other provisions listed in the deed. The Erie firm, which has already invested heavily in land along the Franklin-Reno road, will participate in the sharing of the cost of extension of a city road which would reach its property.

Titusville Herald: A total of 5,630 feet of 10-inch casing was set and cemented by 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the deep test well southeast of Tidouette. Drilling will resume on Shaw Farm No. 1 at noon Tuesday after the cement has set 72 hours. This time the hole will be eight inches. Heretofore it has been ten inches. The job of setting the casing took a week. Every moment of it was tense work, because one slip can mean a great deal of trouble.

"Over 45" Group 27 Per Cent of State's Job "Retrainees"

Harrisburg — Twenty-seven per cent of the Commonwealth's residents retrained for gainful employment during the past year by the Bureau of Rehabilitation were 45 years of age or over, indicating the need for service to citizens in the middle and advanced age groups.

John R. Torquato, Secretary of Labor and Industry and Executive Officer of the State Board of Vocational Education for Rehabilitation said that of the 892 in this group, 828 were in the 45 to 64 age bracket while the remaining 64 individuals were more than 65 years of age.

A survey of the Bureau's activities during the past several years, Torquato said, shows there has been a definite trend to rehabilitating an increasing number of Commonwealth citizens over 45 years of age or over. In 1947 there were 460 rehabilitants who were 45 years or older while in 1952 there were 903. The percentage has remained practically the same ever since.

"This is an encouraging trend," Torquato said, "particularly when we hear of the growing tendencies on the part of some employers to withhold jobs from individuals in the higher age brackets. This is a big step forward in our efforts to overcome resistance to older persons and is particularly noteworthy because these individuals are disabled."

The job of occupations in which the older rehabilitants were placed contrasts sharply with these rehabilitants in other age groups, Torquato said.

During the past year 3,337 citizens in all age groups were rehabilitated and placed in gainful employment, and while 17.3 per cent were in clerical jobs only nine per cent of this number appeared in the 45 to 64 age group and two per cent more than 65 years of age. Virtually the same percentage applied to all other job classifications except service occupations. In this particular category 31 of the rehabilitants were over 65 years of age and 235 were in the 45 to 64 bracket.

A wide variety of organizations agencies, groups and individuals referred these persons to the Bureau for rehabilitative services, but one of the largest increases came from physicians who are cooperating closely with the Bureau's program. Under the service offered by the Bureau, the individual may select a physician or specialist of his own choice if he does not have a family doctor. The highest number, 178, were self-referred, indicating that more persons are becoming familiar with the State-Federal program of helping the disabled.

When the 892 persons were accepted for services, 261 had a small wage income, 107 were on public assistance rolls, eight were receiving private relief, 111 Unemployment Compensation, 21 Workmen's Compensation, 56 other types of insurance, 191 were dependent upon their families and 137 were dependent on other sources including savings.

It costs the Bureau and taxpayers of the Commonwealth an average of $182 to retrain and place each of the 892 individuals in gainful employment. They are now earning an average of $41 a week thus making them self-sufficient, self-supporting taxpayers citizens, and removing them from various forms of public assistance and compensation rolls.

Employment Reaches An All-Time High for June

Washington (AP)—Employment reached an all-time high in June with 66½ million Americans holding jobs across the nation, the government reported Monday.

The report by the Commerce and Labor departments showed 1,055,000 more persons at work last month than in the previous record month last August, when there were 65,448,000 jobholders. At the same time, unemployment increased by 300,000 in June to 2,900,000, or 4.2 per cent of the entire labor force.

Young summer workers getting out of school or seeking postgraduation jobs accounted for the increase both in employment and in job seekers, the two departments said.

William J. Beal, early agricultural scientist, was first to cross-fertilize corn, ushering in hybrid corn.

New Record Is Set In Blood Testing Of Cows in Penn'a

Harrisburg—A new monthly record of more than 110,000 samples of blood tested in the State's program for control and eradication of bovine brucellosis was established by the Department of Agriculture during April, Secretary William L. Henning announced.

All testing was done at the animal laboratory of the Department, located near Harrisburg, he said. The record indicates outstanding acceleration of the brucellosis or Bang's disease control program in Pennsylvania, he asserted.

As of mid-April Secretary Henning issued a proclamation that area testing for the disease would require signed approval from only 75 per cent of the herd owners in a township instead of the 90 per cent that had prevailed for years. Since that time there has been a considerable increase in the number of township sign-ups and drawing of blood samples by veterinarians has increased proportionately, according to Dr. H. A. Mito head of the Bureau of Animal Industry. Department records show that for the entire year 1955 the BAI laboratory tested 886,000 blood samples for the presence of brucellosis, an average of more than 73,800 per month. The April total was 110,480 tests and samples are still being handled in record numbers. Through this accelerated program Dr. Henning anticipates that the certification of Pennsylvania counties as brucellosis-free may average one new county a month. The present goal is to have the entire State tested by January 1958. Only three other states have been completely certified in the national Federal-State campaign to eradicate Bang's disease—Maine, New Hampshire and North Carolina. The cattle population in the three states combined is less than the Pennsylvania total of more than 1,500,000 dairy cattle and breeding cattle on which testing is to be conducted. Pennsylvania now has 36 counties certified as brucellosis-free. Several more are expected to attain the honor roll in the near future as soon as presence of the disease drops below five per cent of herds and one per cent of cattle within the county.

NEW TELEPHONE BUILDINGS AND BUILDING ADDITIONS

A lot of jobs for construction workers and suppliers!

Between 1946 and 1955, we spent an average of 70 million dollars each year to expand the telephone system in the communities we serve throughout Pennsylvania. And in the next five years, our bill for this alone will average more than 100 million dollars a year.

New building construction is one aspect of this huge telephone growth. From the close of World War II to now, we have constructed 178 new buildings and 135 building additions. And our plans call for 145 more new buildings and 75 more building additions by the end of 1960. By any standard, that's a huge building program!

This program represents purchases—to the tune of millions of dollars—from hundreds of Pennsylvania building-supply firms. It represents employment and good incomes for thousands of Pennsylvania bricklayers, carpenters, plumbers, electricians and other people.

Any way you look at it, the successful operation and steady expansion of the telephone business play a big part in the prosperity of Pennsylvania as a whole... and of Pennsylvanians as individuals.

Circus Midgets Visit Patient at Hospital

Perhaps the single high spot which topped the circus visit to Warren yesterday was when three midget clowns were driven to Warren General Hospital for a visit to the children's ward late in the afternoon between shows. The three, gaily-costumed rascals fitted among the 25 or so child patients, handing out balloons and toy airplanes to the boys and batons to the girls. Special visit was made to Alan Lowe and Eddie Vaughan who were victims of an explosion on Beatty Field July fifth. They were reported left smiling and happy after the visit. Harry Segel and James Deigan were Jaycees who took the clowns to the hospital where adult patients as well as youngsters enjoyed their visit thoroughly and morale was visibly boosted.

The circus itself lived up to its billing as the World's greatest.
Right from the Side Show lovely dumpling in the 387-pound form of Ella Mills to the spine tingling, high pole act of the Four Nocks,
the Ringling Brothers, Barnum & Bailey group carried on in show business tradition.
Even the clowns had new gimmicks this year as they showed a preference for the explosive end to a routine.

Perhaps the two most breathtaking acts were the two concluding numbers. The Hildays, who presumably never fight, have a unicycle suspended upside down from a round track right at the top of the tent. When he pedals it around upside down, he holds in his teeth a hook from which is suspended a high bar. She hangs by her knees from that. There is no net.

The four Nocks swing and sway atop four wooden poles which bend like birch in a hurricane. Climax to act comes as the poles sway over and the performers exchange perches.
Activity exploded in the center
ring with the entrance of Trevor Bale and his Royal Bengal Tigers.
His animals' most accomplished feat was arraying themselves about an arched platform while the fearless Bale swung carelessly on a seat suspended beneath, his back turned to several of the pack.

Then, in a profusion of acts too fast to follow in all three rings, came the Rixos on a breath-taking balancing ladder: Logano, human pretzel of the air; Della Canestrelli, suspense on a rolling ball; Antoinette, beauty on the high bars;

Chimpanzee Charvri, with three rings of chimps performing feats easy to them and then demanding outrageous applause by beckoning to the crowd;

Resnback Revue, center ring, world's most famous family of bareback riders, staging hilarious misses as they leaped to the back of circling horses;

Biggest laugh went to Honka Karoly whose horse kept running from the ring unintentionally.
Titos, appearing on his first tour of America, put a flat pad on the top of his head, connected it with a chin strap, then bounced along on a padded board some 20 feet in the air.

"Say it with flowers" number,
first procession;

Alfred Burton, hoodwinking the public that he had difficulty stacking blocks while standing on his hands atop a 25-foot ladder (his misses captivated audiences at both shows: the applause was wild);

Superbas, with hand-to-head stand leaps and twirls, and Car-menas hand-to-hand feats;

Paul Jung's Misfit Army blasted a particularly misfitted soldier into the top of the next ring;

Charles Moroski presented his dozen thoroughbred horses in center ring while Glena Lipowska in ring three and Hans and Piriko Ussim in ring one whip-snapped their equines;

Adanos with his billiard cues twirling, Marilex Duo spinning plates and Della Chueas in ring
one, world's fastest juggling trio; "Mericanorama" aweing the crowds while seated and standing without support on a swaying bar high in the big top;

The clown airport skit blew one

468,000 Civil Defense Workers In State Will Participate In Next "Operation" on July 20

The 468,000 civil defense workers of the Commonwealth will be called into action during "Operation Alert 1956", the third nationwide civil defense exercise scheduled for Friday, July 20, 1956, with a theoretical all-out attack.

Pennsylvania's activities will include both a public participation exercise, and state-wide mobilization of civil defense forces and activation of emergency control centers, it was stated by Dr.
Richard Gerstell, State Director of Civil Defense.

He announced further that a theoretical attack pattern, jointly planned by the Department of Defense, the Office of Defense Mobilization and the Federal Civil Defense Administration, will place various parts of the Commonwealth "under attack" at slightly different times on the same date.

"This means that different groups of counties will receive warnings and sound public action signals at different times," the State Civil Defense Director said.
He emphasized the importance for all citizens to learn and recognize the nation's recently-adopted attack warning signals, which were sounded for the first time in Pennsylvania during the state-wide surprise civil defense test held only last month "There are now two signals," he said, "Take Cover and Alert."

The Take Cover is a warbling, or pulsating, signal lasting three minutes on sirens, horns or whistles. The Alert is a steady, nonpulsating siren, horn or whistle blast of from three to five minutes.

Just as soon as the Take Cover is heard and recognized all traffic automatically will be expected to halt and all people on the streets will immediately seek shelter in nearby buildings or in other places of comparative safety, according to Dr. Gerstell. Public participation will be supervised by civil defense and police forces.

In bringing their vehicles to a halt, the State Civil Defense Director cautioned all motorists "carefully to pull to one side and stop, being certain to leave at least one traffic lane and all intersections open for use by emergency vehicles."

While railroad, subway and elevated trains, as well as commer-tial aircraft and ships, will continued scheduled, motor vehicles will be expected to remain at a standstill, and all people under cover, until the Alert is sounded followed by public announcement that it is safe for traffic to move and for the public to leave shelters unless directed otherwise by local officials. Vehicles using the Pennsylvania Turnpike will be subject to stoppage only at interchanges.

The mobilization of civil defense forces and activation of emergency control centers will be somewhat "behind the scenes", as far as the public is concerned, but is of great importance, the State Director indicated. For this means that thousands of volunteers, including directors and staffs, auxiliary police and firemen, mass care center workers, wardens, telephon-ists, clerks and others, will be "called to duty". The State Civil Defense Director said the emergency control centers throughout the Commonwealth will be expected to operate from the time of mobilization until 11 p. m. on July 20th.

He urged all Pennsylvanians to participate in civil defense exercises during "Operation Alert" when called upon and to obey promptly and thoughtfully the public action signals and instructions of police and civil defense volunteers.

while he was sleeping in his crib
in Franklin yesterday morning.
The infant boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Manross of Franklin and grandson of Mrs. Edna Wilson of Titusville, was found dead by his mother at 7 a. m. Dr.
Frank E. Butters of Franklin, Venango County deputy coroner, issued a verdict of accidental death. Relatives said the baby had thrust his feet through the slats in his crib and the ribbon tying his nightgown had pulled up tight under his chin. Black and blue marks were found on his neck.

LAW CLAMPS DOWN ON NARCOTICS PEDDLERS

Washington (AP)—Congress has sent the White House a bill prescribing stiffer penaltities, including death, in the hope of discouraging the peddling of narcotics. The measure is expected to be signed into law by President Ein-senhower since it carries out recommendations made early this year by a Cabinet committee.

WOMAN ELECTROCUTED

New Castle (AP)—Mrs. Beatrice Carothers, 57, of New Castle, was

WROUGHT IRON UP

Pittsburgh (AP)—A seven percent price increase has been put into effect by the A. M. Byers Co., the world's largest manufacturer of wrought iron. A spokesman in anticipation of increased on all the firm's products was made in anticipation of increase labor costs after a settlement of the current steel strike. Byers'

31 with any wage increase retroactive to July 1.

The Oliveras, with a Harpo Marx guise on one of them, put on a crowd-pleasing display of comic antics on the horizontal bars;

The Cordons put on a whip-cracking display of artistry as

Brinks Robbery Suspect Dies Suddenly in Prison

Norfolk, Mass. (AP)—Protesting his innocence to the end, Brink's robber suspect Stanley A. Gusciora, 36, died in the cell of a prison hospital last night, just a month before he was to stand trial with eight others.

Prison officials said Gusciora apparently died of natural causes.
Medical Examiner Jacob Zalvan said there was "no evidence of external violence or self-destruction."

Gusciora was transferred from East Cambridge jail to the hospital at the Norfolk prison colony less than 24 hours before he was fatally stricken.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph Gusciora of Stoughton, said their son told them he had no part in the fabulous $1218,211
Brink's robbery of Jan. 17, 1950.
About an hour after the family visit, Gusciora, whose police record dates back 22 years, was dead.

King and His Court Are Scheduled In Jamestown on Sat.

The internationally famous Softball team, the King and His Court, the four-man team that played the Kiwanis benefit game here a year ago, will make their Jamestown debut Saturday evening at seven o'clock when they meet the undefeated Jamestown Buffalo Grill team at the Municipal Stadium in that city.
The visitors with Eddie "King" Feigner on the mound have run up a most amazing record in the past ten years. They have played a total of 910 games, losing but 82 of these games and tying 11, this record when realizing that the team is made up of but four men is staggering. In covering over 400,000 miles and playing before more than 3,000,000 fans, Eddie "King" Feigner has run up an equally amazing record, he has struck out over 26,000 batters, has pitched a total of 108 perfect games, has had over 300 no-hit games and 545 shut outs.
Walt Prusik, business manager of the local team has tried for two years to get this team here and personally guarantees that every sport fan in the city regardless of whether they are a baseball, softball or football fan will go home saying that never before had they seen such an exhibition. In addition to seeing a great game every fan will be supporting "Our Town", Manager Prusik said that all profit derived from the game will be given to the "Our Town" project.

Troy Wins a Split Decision in Bout With Jerry Luedee

New York (P)—Willie Troy shrugged when he was asked if Jerry Luedee's blows hurt. "They just sting a little," he said. "But they sure don't hurt like some of those light heavyweights."
The 24-year-old Troy once seemed headed toward becoming a pretty fair light heavy, but he displayed an alarming ailment—a glass jaw. So now he's back with the middles and apparently happier.
He was out only three times last year, and four times this year, and his inaction showed last night at St. Nicholas Arena where he won a split, 10-round decision over Jerry Luedee of New Haven, Conn.
Troy didn't appear to have any desire to fight for half the bout. Actually, he was warming up to the task and once he got going, Luedee took some stinging body blows.
The officials had it about as narrow as you could shave it.

Sportsmen Planning To Offer Proposals In Hunting Season

Harrisburg (P)—Representatives of conservation and sportsmen's organizations came to Harrisburg today to make recommendations to the State Game Commission on hunting season dates and bag limits.
Some 20 organizations listed their suggestions on the 1956 hunting seasons prior to the regular closed game commission meeting.
The commission will release the dates of the various seasons tomorrow together with the limits on kills in the different categories.
Prior to the open session, Dr. Logan Bennett, executive director of the commission, said one of the top issues on the agenda was whether the state will have an antlerless deer season in 1956 as it has had for the past few years.
The special season is called periodically to trim the size of the deer herd down in line with available food supplies. Only doe and bucks with antlers less than an inch long may be hunted during the special season.
Because licenses for the season are limited by counties, the season has been the center of much controversy among the state's hunters.
In January the commission set these tentative opening dates for the opening of the various seasons: Small game, Oct. 27; bow and arrow deer season, Oct. 8; regular deer season bucks only, Dec. 3; bear, Nov. 26.
The tentative dates were released to enable hunters to make vacation plans for the seasons.

SPORT BRIEFS

Washington (P)—The American League has three of the major leagues' hottest hitters in its starting lineup. George Kell of Baltimore collected 17 hits in his last 36 at bats for a .472 mark. Nellie Fox of the White Sox is 20-for-46 for .435 and Detroit's Al Gailine had 9 safeties in his last 16 trips to .563.

The fourth inning is the big one in All-Star play. Of the 190 runs scored in 22 classics, 36 have been scored in the fourth frame, 28 in the fifth, 27 in the first, 21 in the eighth, 20 in the seventh, 18 in the sixth, 17 in the third, 13 in the second, 8 in the ninth and 2 in extra innings.

Incidental information about the starting pitchers: Bob Friend of the Pirates has given up 13 homers in 162 innings. Pierce has been tagged for 11 in 142 frames but the White Sox southpaw has not given up a homer in his last 8 starts dating back to May 30.

Ted Williams of the Red Sox takes a .375 All-Star game batting average into today's tilt. He has 12 hits in 32 at bats, 3 homers and 10 runs batted in for 11 games. Mickey Vernon of the Yankees has a .308 mark for three contests, including one home run and three RBIs.

Pierce, Whitey Ford of the Yankees and Herb Score of Cleveland, who have been nominated to work in that order by Manager Casey Stengel, have a season's earned-run aggregate of 2.83. Ford is the American League's pace-setter with a 2.44 average followed by Score's 2.89. Pierce is at 3.11.

The very busy Congress has been buckling down for weeks in a drive to adjourn some time this month.

But after all, baseball is the national pastime.

And not since 1937 has Washington had a major league All-Star game all its own. So...

The Senate recessed yesterday until tomorrow.

The House scheduled a noon session amid considerable talk of getting it over with as quickly as possible.

Five Reasons Why Haney Is the Envy of League Managers

Milwaukee (P)—What are five reasons why Fred Haney is the envy of the other National League managers these days?
The round little manager of the Milwaukee Braves has that many starting pitchers—with a glittering combined earned run average of 2.91.
Where the second-place Braves would be today without Lew Burdette, Warren Spahn, Bob Buhl, Ray Crone and Gene Conley is open to conjecture.
Since Haney took over from the "resigned" Charlie Grimm at Brooklyn June 16, the Braves have scored an average of 4.7 runs a game in 25 games. They've won 17 of them, mainly because the opposition has been held to an average of 3.4 runs a game.
Burdette leads the staff and the National League with an ERA of only 2.12. Then, in order come Spahn, a left-hander who has been around a long time, with 2.81; Conley, 3.12; Crone, 3.19; and Buhl, 3.32.
Last year at this juncture in the race, the same Big Five had a combined ERA of 3.60.

Military Credit Plan For Major Players May Get Approval

Washington (P)—Major league baseball owners are expected to approve pension credit for ballplayers who served in the armed forces during the past five years.
Commissioner Ford Frick said the recommendation was agreed to yesterday at a meeting of the major league executive council and the ballplayers' pension committee.
Charles Segar, Frick's executive secretary, said approval is expected when the proposal is submitted to the 16 club owners at a meeting in August.

World War II veterans are permitted to count military service toward their pensions but such credit was halted when fighting began in Korea.

Segar said a study indicates about 30 or 35 major leaguers would be eligible for military credit during the past five years.

Major league club owners have been underwriting the pensions, begun in 1947, in return for the proceeds from radio and television rights to the World Series and All-Star games.

Next year, a new system begins which the player pension fund gets 60 per cent and the owners 40 per cent of the broadcasting money.

India's population is growing at the rate of five million per year.

DEAD PILOT IDENTIFIED
A dispatch from Dunkirk, N. Y., says the pilot who was killed when his plane crashed while taking off at Municipal Airport here Sunday night was identified Monday as Col. Frank J. Spear, 50, of Detroit. Spear's Beechcraft Bonanza plunged to earth shortly after it took off from Dunkirk in the face of a violent rain storm. Col. Spear was bound for his home, and according to airport spokesmen, took off against the advice of the airport's caretaker. Dunkirk Municipal Airport is officially closed. Col. Spear landed his light plane about 5:30 p. m. as the thunderstorm broke. John Nalbome, operator of a nearby private airstrip and caretaker of the municipal port, said he warned the colonel not to take off. At 8:30 p. m., however, Col. Spear climbed into the cockpit of the four-place aircraft and started for Detroit. The plane climbed to about 300 feet, started to bank left, then side-slipped into the ground.

Current Population Survey Bases Upon Larger Sample Plan

An expansion in the Current Population Survey, begun last December to improve Federal statistics on employment and unemployment, has been completed and the larger sample will be in effect when the U. S. Census Bureau collects facts from a panel of local residents in June, according to Supervisor Walter R. Reynolds of the Census Bureau's district office at Cleveland, Ohio, which participates in the survey.

The expanded sample consists of about 35,000 interviewed households located in 330 different areas throughout the country, including nearly all of the previous sample of 21,000 interviewed households in 230 areas. The increase in size and dispersion of the sample improves the precision of national totals and also, and more importantly, the precision of the significant details obtained from the survey, such as distributions by age, occupation, hours worked, and length of time unemployed. In addition, an expansion will be possible in the amount of information available for Regions and other large geographic areas.

The supervisor pointed out that the Current Population Survey is authorized by law. This law provides that all information about individuals be kept in strict confidence and that only statistical totals be published. Information obtained in the Current Population Survey cannot be used for taxation, investigation or regulation.

Current Population Survey information will be collected locally during the week of June 17.
